

SUMMARY: The document below is the copy enrolled on the Close Rolls on 12 November 1608 of the indenture, dated 11 November 1608, by which John Collett sold his interest in the Globe playhouse, the inn called the Star in Bread Street, and other properties in Southwark and London to John Bodley of Streatham.

There may be a handwritten transcript by Charles William Wallace at the Huntingdon Library. See <http://ltb-stg.cch.kcl.ac.uk:51518/db/record/emlot-record/7758/>.

For the copy on the Close Rolls of the indenture, dated 7 October 1601, by which Nicholas Brend (d. 12 October 1601), in consideration for payment of his debts of £1478 and for £250 paid to him by John Collett, mortgaged properties in Southwark, including the Globe playhouse, to Sir Matthew Browne (d.1603) and John Collet, see TNA C 54/1722, mm. 5-7.

For Nicholas Brend's recognizance to Sir Matthew Browne and John Collett in the amount of £2500 as security for performance of the indenture of 7 October 1601, see TNA C 54/1705, mm. 24-5.

For Nicholas Brend's indenture of 10 October 1601 by which he sold the properties mentioned in the indenture below, including the Globe playhouse, to Matthew Browne and John Collett, see TNA C 54/1682, mm. 10-11.

Nicholas Brend had earlier leased the ground on which the Globe playhouse was built by lease dated 21 February 1599 to Richard Burbage (1568-1619), Cuthbert Burbage (1564/5-1636), William Kempe, Augustine Phillips (d.1605), Thomas Pope (d.1603) John Heminges (1566-1630) and William Shakespeare (1564-1616) of Stratford upon Avon (see TNA REQ 4/1/2):

for the said gardens and grounds whereupon the said playhouse & galleries were afterwards builded were demised & letten by the said Nicholas Brend by his indenture of lease tripartite bearing date in or about the 21st day of February in the 41st year of the reign of the late Queen Elizabeth [=21 February 1599] unto Cuthbert Burbage, Richard Burbage, William Shakespeare, the said Augustine Phillips, Thomas Pope, the said John Heminges, one of the said defendants, and William Kempe, to have and to hold the one moiety of the said garden plots and ground to the said Cuthbert Burbage and Richard Burbage, their executors, administrators & assigns, from the feast of the birth of Our Lord God last past before the date of the said indenture [=25 December 1598] unto the end & term of 31 years from thence next ensuing [=24 December 1629] for the yearly rent of seven pounds & five shillings, and to have & to hold the other moiety of the said garden plots & grounds unto the said William Shakespeare, Augustine Phillips, Thomas Pope, the said John Heminges, one of the said defendants, & William Kempe, their executors, administrators & assigns, from the said feast of the birth of Our Lord God then last past before the date of the said indenture unto the said full end & term of 31 years from thence next ensuing for the like yearly rent of seven pounds & five shillings.

Nicholas Brend was the son of Thomas Brend (d.1598), and his first wife, Margery. For the will of Thomas Brend, see TNA PROB 11/93/316. For the inquisition post mortem taken on 17 May 1599 after the death of Thomas Brend in which Nicholas Brend is said to have been 37 years of age or more at the time of Thomas Brend's death, see TNA C 142/257/68. In the inquisition the Globe is described as:

one house newly built with a garden to the same appertaining in the parish of Saint Saviour's aforesaid in the county of Surrey aforesaid in the occupation of William Shakespeare and others.

For the will of Nicholas Brend, dated 10 October 1601 and proved 6 November 1601, see TNA PROB 11/98/348.

For the inquisition post mortem taken at Southwark on 3 December 1601 concerning lands held by Nicholas Brend, in which the properties in the indentures of 7 and 10 October 1601 are not mentioned, and which was delivered to the court on 27 January 1602 by John Bodley of Streatham, gentleman, see TNA C 142/271/151.

For the final order by which ownership of the Globe playhouse and other properties in Southwark and in Bread Street in London was restored to Matthew Brend (1600-1659), the King's ward, after a lawsuit brought on his behalf by the King's attorney in the Court of Wards, see TNA WARD 9/94, ff. 31-3.

In the lawsuit in the Court of Wards, it is stated that after Sir Matthew Browne's death in 1603 his interest in the indenture below went to John Collett by survivorship.

Sir Matthew Browne of Betchworth Castle in Dorking, Surrey, was the son of Sir Thomas Browne (d.1597) of Betchworth and his first wife, Mabel Fitzwilliam (see Richardson, Douglas, Magna Carta Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, pp. 342-3). For the will of Sir Matthew Browne, dated 2 August 1603 and proved 19 April 1608, see TNA PROB 11/111/273.

John Collett, was the brother of Nicholas Brend's step-mother, Mercy (nee Collett) Bodley Brend (d. 13 April 1597).

John Bodley of Streatham was the son of Francis Bodley (d.1566), citizen and fishmonger of London (for whose will see TNA PROB 11/48/415), and his wife, Mercy Collett (d. 13 April 1597). After Francis Bodley's death, his widow, Mercy, married, as his second wife, Nicholas Brend's father, Thomas Brend (d.1598). John Bodley was a Justice of the Peace for Surrey, was knighted by King James at Compton Wynyates in 1617, and in a lawsuit in the Star Chamber in 1623 is described as one of King James' gentleman-pensioners (see TNA STAC 8/74/10). On 13 September 1619 he was one of the witnesses when Edward Alleyn subscribed his name to the deed founding Dulwich College. See Strype's Survey of London at:

John Bodley of Streatham married Jane Evelyn, the daughter of Thomas Evelyn, esquire, of Long Ditton, Surrey. See the will of Thomas Evelyn, TNA PROB 11/130/558, and Bannerman, W. Bruce, ed., The Visitations of the County of Surrey, (London: Harleian Society, 1899), Vol. XLIII, p. 147 at:
