

EDWARD DE VERE NEWSLETTER NO. 59

Published by De Vere Press

Kelowna, B.C. V1Y 3R7 Canada

Were the letters and youthful poems of Edward de Vere, 17th Earl of Oxford, written in the lexical vocabulary of Shakespeare? [Part 3 of 3]

In the following pages, the lexical vocabulary of Oxford's sixteen youthful poems is reprinted in full. Words not found in the twenty-volume Oxford English Dictionary are marked "NFD", while words not found in Shakespeare are marked "NFS". Shakespeare rare words are marked "SRW", followed by a number indicating the number of times the word occurs in Shakespeare according to Bartlett's Concordance and Schmidt's Lexicon. Proper nouns and foreign words found in Oxford's poetry vocabulary have been omitted, except where the proper noun or foreign word in question has its own entry in the Oxford English Dictionary. Words found in Oxford's prose vocabulary as well as in the vocabulary of his youthful poems are marked with an asterisk, a total of approximately 500 words.
