

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 13 June 1500 and proved 11 September 1500, of Richard Martyn (d.1500) of Long Melford, great-grandfather of Humphrey Martyn (d.1587?), the addressee of the Langham Letter which describes Leicester's entertainment of Queen Elizabeth at Kenilworth in the summer of 1575. See the Langham page on this website.

CONNECTION TO OXFORD

The testator held the manor of Mary Hall in Walter Belchamp, which he bequeathed to his son and heir, Roger Martyn (d.1542?). It should be noted that Oxford's mother's family, the Goldings, owned property in Walter Belchamp. See the will, TNA PROB 11/32/177, of Oxford's maternal grandfather, John Golding (d. 28 November 1547). The rectory of Walter Belchamp was among the properties included in Henry VIII's grant of Colne Priory to John de Vere (1482-1540), 15th Earl of Oxford, and his heirs on 22 July 1536 (see TNA C 66/668, mm. 26-7). See also TNA C 66/1383, m. 10.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

The testator's grandfather, Richard Martyn (d.1438) is said to have come to Long Melford from Dorset during the reign of Richard II. See the Martyn pedigree in Howard, Joseph Jackson, ed., The Visitation of Suffolk, Vol. I, (Lowestoft: Samuel Tymms, 1866), p. 226 at:

MARRIAGES AND ISSUE

The testator's first wife is said to have been named Elizabeth (see Corder, supra, p. 18). In some pedigrees her surname is given as Mountford.

In the will below the testator's second wife, Margery, is said to be the mother-in-law of Clement Heigham (d.1500) of Lavenham, whose wife (and apparently Margery's daughter by an earlier marriage) was Maud Cooke, the daughter of Lawrence Cooke of Lavenham.

In the will below the testator leaves bequests to six sons and a daughter:

* Roger Martyn (d.1542?), eldest son and heir by his father's first wife, Elizabeth. For his will, see TNA PROB 11/29/187. He married firstly Alice Forth, the daughter of William Forth of Hadleigh, and secondly Mary Mountney, the daughter of Thomas Mountney of Mountnessing, Essex, widow of Robert Appleton of Waldingfield.

* Lawrence Martyn (d.1518?). His eldest son, Sir Roger Martyn (d.1573), was the father of Humphrey Martyn (d.1587?), addressee of the Langham Letter. For the will of Sir Roger Martyn (d.1573), see TNA PROB 11/56/48. For the will of Lawrence Martyn, see TNA PROB 11/19/183.

* John Martyn (d. before 1542?), who married a wife whose name is unknown, by whom he had a daughter and heir, Margaret Barfoot.

* Thomas Martyn, who was left 'the tenement in Halsted called Playstowe'.

* Richard Martyn.

* William Martyn.

* Alice Martyn, who appears to have married a husband surnamed Dyke.

LM: Testamentum Ricardi Martyn

In the name of God. I, Richard Martyn of Long Melford, being in good mind, ordain and make my testament and [-and] last will the 13th day of June in the year of Our Lord God 1500 in manner and form as followeth:

First, I bequeath my soul to Almighty God and to Our Lady Saint Mary and to all the holy company of heaven, and my body to be buried in the south aisle in Melford Church by my wife, which I did make for me, my wife and my children to lie in;
