

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 12 July 1540 and proved 30 January 1543, of John Mynne (d. 14 December 1542), whose widow married Francis Southwell (c.1510-1581) of Hertingfordbury, Hertfordshire, and Islington, Norfolk, uncle of the Francis Southwell who was involved in allegations against Oxford early in 1581.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

For the Mynne family, see 'Horton Manor and the Mynne Family' at:

<http://www.epsomandewellhistoryexplorer.org.uk/HortonManor.html>

The testator appears to have had two brothers:

-Nicholas Mynne (d.1528), who married Joan Marston (d. 31 October 1540), the sister of Oxford's step-grandmother, Ursula Marston, the second wife of Oxford's grandfather, John Golding. By Joan Marston, the testator's brother, Nicholas Mynne (d.1528), was the father of four sons and a daughter, including a son who appears to have been the Nicholas Mynne (living 1590) who was in Oxford's service. See the will, dated 16 April 1528 and proved 9 July 1528, of Nicholas Mynne, TNA PROB 11/22/551. See also the will of Joan Marston's second husband, William Saunders (d.1571) of Ewell, Surrey, TNA PROB 11/53/491.

-Henry Mynne, parson of Balsham, Cambridgeshire.

MARRIAGE AND ISSUE

The testator married Alice Standish, the daughter of William Standish (d.1553) of London, by whom he had three sons and several unnamed daughters, including:

* Edward Mynne.

* George Mynne.

* Andrew Mynne.

After the testator's death, Alice Standish married Francis Southwell (c.1510-1581) of Hertingfordbury, Hertfordshire, and Islington, Norfolk, uncle of the Francis Southwell who was involved in allegations against Oxford early in 1581. For the will of Francis Southwell (c.1510-1581), see TNA PROB 11/64/81. See also Dashwood, G.H., ed., The Visitation of Norfolk in the Year 1563, Vol. I, (Norwich: Miller & Leavins, 1878), p. 125 at:

LM: Test{amentu}m Io{hannis} Mynne

In dei nomine amen. I, John Mynne, being of perfect mind and good remembrance, the 12th day of July the year of Our Lord God a thousand five hundred and forty and the 32nd year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord King Henry the Eight, make this my present testament and last will in manner and form following:

First, I bequeath my soul to Almighty God, my Maker and my Redeemer, to Our Lady Saint Mary and all the holy company of heaven, my body to be buried in Christian burial where it fortune me to decease;

Item, I give and bequeath to the high altar of Saint Botolph's Church without Aldryche Gate [=Aldgate] of London for tithes negligently forgotten, 3s 4d;

Item, to the same church toward the reparation thereof, 3s 4d;

Item, to the Fraternity of the Trinity within the said church, 6s 8d;

Item, I give to every one of my daughters twenty marks, to be paid unto them at the day of their marriages;

Item, I give unto either of my sons, George and Andrew, £10 apiece, to be paid unto them when they shall come to the age of twenty years;

And if it fortune any of my said children to die afore the time afore limited, then I will that their portions that shall so fortune to die be equally divided between them that overlive;

And I give unto Edward, my son, God's blessing and mine, and that the common law giveth him after his mother[<sup>s</sup>] decease, and my standing cup gilt, that to be delivered unto him when he come to the age of 21 years, and if it fortune him to die afore he come to the said age, then I will that George, my son, shall have the said standing cup, and then the ten pounds that he hath bequeathed him to be divided amongst the residue;

And all the residue of my goods, chattels, plate, stuff of household and other things whatsoever it be, my debts paid, my legacies performed and paid, I give and bequeath unto my loving wife, Alice Mynne, whom I make my sole executor of this my present will and testament;

And I make my brother, Henry Mynne, parson of Balsham, overseer of the same will and testament, praying him to be good unto my wife and children;

In witness whereof I have subscribed this and written it with my own hand the day and year abovesaid. Per me, Joh{ann}em Mynne Memorand{um}. Where I have purchased certain lands and tenements in Hertingfordbury and elsewhere in the county of Hertford of John Butler of th' Exchequer, which lands be not yet assured unto me, I will that the same lands be assured according as I declared to my brother Chapman and Christopher Smyth, viz., that there shall be a fine levied of the free land by Master Butler and his wife to the use of me and Alice, my wife, and to the heirs of me, and I will that Master Butler of the same land make a deed to like use. and I will that Master Butler and his wife make surrender of the copyhold lands to like use. Per me, Ioh{ann}em Mynne.
