

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the will, dated 28 July 1557 and proved 13 November 1559, of Elizabeth Vere Wingfield.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

The testatrix was the daughter of Sir George Vere (died c.1503) by Margaret Stafford, daughter and heiress of Sir William Stafford (d. before 1487). For the ancestry of the testatrix' parents, see the will of the testatrix' father, Sir George Vere, TNA PROB 11/13/144. See also Richardson, Douglas, Plantagenet Ancestry, 2nd ed., 2011, Vol. III, pp. 413-14; and the pedigrees in Ross, James, John de Vere, Thirteenth Earl of Oxford (1442-1513); 'The Foremost Man of the Kingdom', (Woodbridge, Suffolk: Boydell Press, 2011), pp. 18, 24.

The testatrix had two brothers and three sisters:

* George Vere (d.1498).

* John de Vere (1499-1527), 14th Earl of Oxford, who married Anne Howard (d.1559), daughter of Thomas Howard (1443 – 21 May 1524), 2nd Duke of Norfolk, by his second wife, Agnes Tilney. He inherited the earldom after his uncle, John de Vere (1442-1513), 13th Earl of Oxford, died without legitimate issue.

* Margaret Vere, mentioned in her father's will.

* Dorothy Vere (d. 7 February 1527), who married John Neville (1493-1543), 3rd Baron Latimer, for whose will see TNA PROB 11/29/303.

* Ursula Vere (d.1558), who married firstly, George Windsor (d. before 1520), eldest son and heir of Andrew Windsor (d.1543), 1st Baron Windsor, and secondly Sir Edmund Knightley (d.1542). Ursula Vere Windsor Knightly made her will on 20 January 1558 (see TNA PROB 11/42A/10), leaving her interest in certain properties 'to my said sister Dame Elizabeth Wingfield if she fortune to be in life at the time of my death'. The will was proved on 29 November 1558, and since the will of the testatrix was not proved until 13 November 1559, it may be that the testatrix survived her sister, Ursula, and inherited from her.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The testatrix married Sir Anthony Wingfield (d. 15 August 1552) of Letheringham, Suffolk, the eldest son and heir of Sir John Wingfield (d.1509) and his wife, Anne Tuchet, daughter of John Tuchet (d. 26 September 1490), 6th Baron Audley, both of whom were descendants of King Edward I of England and Eleanor of Castile. See his will, TNA PROB 11/36/112; Richardson, supra, Vol. I, p. 152; Vol. II, pp. 201-2; Vol. III, p. 367, and the History of Parliament entry at:

<http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1509-1558/member/wingfield-sir-anthony-1488-1552>.

By Sir Anthony Wingfield, the testatrix had eight sons and seven daughters:

* John Wingfield, who is said to have married Dorothy Fitzherbert, and died without issue.

* Francis Wingfield, who died without issue.

* Sir Robert Wingfield (d. 19 March 1596), who married firstly Cicely Wentworth (d. 22 August 1573), daughter of Thomas Wentworth (1501-1551), 1st Baron Wentworth, and secondly Bridget Spring (d.1570), widow of Thomas Fleetwood (1518-1570) of The Vache, Buckinghamshire, Master of the Mint, and daughter of Sir John Spring of Cockfield and Hitcham, Suffolk. For the will of Sir Robert Wingfield, see TNA PROB 11/87/510. For the will, dated 8 June 1544 and proved 21 May 1549, of Sir John Spring, see TNA PROB 11/32/430. For the will, dated 15 April 1564 and proved 10 November 1564, of his widow, Dorothy (nee Waldegrave) Spring, daughter of Sir William Waldegrave, see TNA PROB 11/47/337.

See also the History of Parliament entry for Sir Robert Wingfield at:

<http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1558-1603/member/wingfield-sir-robert-1596>.

See also the History of Parliament entry for Thomas Fleetwood (1518-1570) at:

<http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1558-1603/member/fleetwood-thomas-1518-70>.

* Charles Wingfield, esquire, who married Elizabeth Rich, the daughter of Robert Rich of South Weald, Essex.

* Richard Wingfield, esquire, of Crowfield and Wantisden, Suffolk, who married firstly Mary Hardwick, the daughter of John Hardwick (d. 29 January 1528), esquire, by Elizabeth Leeke, and sister of Elizabeth (nee Hardwick) Talbot (1527-1608), Countess of Shrewsbury, popularly known as 'Bess of Hardwick', and secondly Joan Clerke, widow of John Harbottle, esquire. For the will of Richard Wingfield, see TNA PROB 11/78/67.

* George Wingfield, who died without issue.

* Anthony Wingfield (d.1593), esquire, who married firstly Katherine Blennerhassett (d.1558), widow of John Gosnold (d.1554) of Shrubland Park in Barham, Suffolk, and daughter of Sir Thomas Blennerhassett of Frenze, Norfolk, secondly Jane Purpett (d.1562), daughter of Edmund Purpett of the manor of Waldingfield, and thirdly Elizabeth Leeche, the daughter of Ralph Leeche of Chatsworth, Derbyshire.

* Henry Wingfield, who is said to have married Dorothy Bacon, and to have been living in 1557.

* Elizabeth Wingfield, who died young.

* Elizabeth Wingfield (again), who married William Naunton (d. 7 June 1553), esquire, of Alderton, Suffolk. Their son, Henry Naunton, was the father of Sir Robert Naunton (1563-1635), the author of Fragmenta Regalia. From the ODNB:

Naunton, Sir Robert (1563–1635), politician, was born in Alderton, Suffolk, the son of Henry Naunton of Alderton and his wife, Elizabeth Asheby of Hornsby, Leicestershire. . . . The Nauntons were considered established members of the county gentry and had been so for well over two centuries. Henry Naunton was master of horse to the dowager duchess of Suffolk, while Elizabeth Asheby had a brother who became a valued member of the diplomatic corps that served Elizabeth I. But it was William Naunton, Sir Robert's grandfather, who increased the family's prestige to that point. He was a lawyer who became one of the chief servants of the duke and then the dowager duchess of Suffolk. He then married a daughter of Sir Anthony Wingfield KG, a leading servant of Henry VIII.

For Naunton's comment in Fragmenta Regalia on Oxford's alleged jest at Sir Walter Raleigh, see Folger Library MS G.a.11 on this website.

* Mary Wingfield, who married firstly Arthur Rush (d.1537) of Chapmans in Sudbourne, Suffolk, secondly Anthony Roke, and thirdly Thomas Darcy. For Arthur Rush, see the History of Parliament entry for Anthony Rush at:

<http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1558-1603/member/rush-anthony>.

Mary Wingfield's first husband, Arthur Rush (d.1537), and their son, Anthony Rush, are mentioned in the will of Thomas Wriothesley (21 December 1505 – 30 July 1550), 1st Earl of Southampton, TNA PROB 11/34/154. For Anthony Rush, see also TNA C 2/Eliz/L9/50. Mary Wingfield's second husband, Anthony Roke, was a servant of the 1st Earl of Southampton's mother, and later a servant of the 1st Earl himself.

* Margaret Wingfield, who died young.

* Margaret Wingfield (again), who married firstly Francis Soone of Wantisden, Suffolk, and secondly a husband surnamed Audley.

* Jane Wingfield.

* Anne Wingfield, who died without issue.

Of the testatrix' children, only two sons (Henry and Richard) and two daughters (Margaret, and a married daughter, Elizabeth Naunton) are mentioned in the will below. In particular, the testatrix's third son, Sir Robert Wingfield (d. 19 March 1596/7), who succeeded his father, and who married Cecily Wentworth (d. 22 August 1573), the daughter of Thomas Wentworth (1501–1551), 1st Baron Wentworth, is not mentioned in the will.

For details of the testatrix's husband's career as a soldier and administrator, see the entry in the ODNB.

LM: T{estamentum} D{omi}ne Elizabeth{e} Wyngfelde

In the name of God, Amen. The 28th day of July in the year of Our Lord God a thousand five hundred fifty and seven and in the fourth and fifth years of the reigns of our Sovereign Lord and Lady Philip and Mary by the grace of God King and Queen of England, Spain, France, either Sicily, Jerusalem and Ireland, Defenders of the Faith, Archdukes of Austria, Dukes of Burgundy, Milan and Brabant, Counties of Hapsburg, Flanders and Tyrol, I, Dame Elizabeth Wingfield of Dedham in the county of Essex, widow, late the wife of Sir Anthony Wingfield, knight of the honourable Order of the Garter, within the diocese of London, being in good and perfect remembrance, thanks be unto Almighty God, knowing and considering the unstableness of this life and that there is nothing so certain to every creature in this world living as is the departing from the same, and nothing so uncertain as the time and hour thereof, do ordain and make this my present testament containing also my last will in manner and form hereafter ensuing:

First I bequeath my soul into th' hands of Almighty God, my body to be buried in the holy sanctuary where it shall please Almighty God that I shall depart out of this present world by the discretion of mine executors;

Item, I will that my executors shall distribute and give unto the poor people at the day of my burial ten pounds, and at my month's day three pounds six shillings and eight pence;

Item, I give and bequeath to my son, Richard Wingfield, one silver salt with a cover all gilt with a little boy with a staff and a child in his hands upon the cover, one other little salt of silver parcel gilt without cover, 2 spoons of silver all gilt, one of them with a rose upon th' end and thother with a little sharp knop upon th' end, six silver spoons with knops and the boar at th' end of them, 3 featherbeds with their bolsters marked with R and W, one pair of fustians, two pillows, one coverlet with the marks of R and W aforesaid, one tester and three cushions whereof one of them with wings, one of verdure, and the third of carpet-work, one carpet for a window with wings in the midst, one half garnish of pewter marked with my husband's stamp, five pewter trenchers marked with the same mark, six platters of pewter, 2 dishes of pewter, four saucers of pewter, my porringers of pewter marked with letters T and G(?), one washing-basin of pewter marked with I and C, one basin with an ewer of pewter unmarked, my pewter pots marked with RW in the bottom, four pewter candlesticks with the marks of R and W aforesaid in the bottom, 3 latten candlesticks marked with R and W in the bottom, one pair of coal-irons, 2 spits, 2 brass pots, one great brass pan and 2 smaller brass pans, one posnet, one chafer and one rug(?) for a bed of divers colours at the ends;

Item, I give and bequeath unto my son, Henry Wingfield, one pot of silver all gilt with a cover with a little boy sitting upon the cover, another lesser pot of silver with a cover all gilt with a knop standing upon 2 rings, one salt with a cover graven of silver all gilt and a man standing upon the cover with a spear in his hand, another salt with a cover of silver parcel gilt with a knop with my mother's arms, another salt graven with a cover of silver all gilt with a man and an arrow in his hand upon the cover, one round bowl with a cover of silver all gilt, one little gilt goblet of silver with a cover all gilt with my mother's arms in the top, one other goblet of silver with a cover parcel gilt with my mother's arms in the top, four silver spoons all gilt whereof 3 with round knops, one knop of th' old fashion, and the fourth spoon with a broad knop, and 18 spoons of silver with knops with the boar in th' ends of them, and three other silver spoons plain with W graven in th' ends of them, one little pot with a cover of silver all gilt with a little boy upon the cover, and one basin with an ewer of silver parcel gilt with mine own arms graven in the said basin;

Item, I give and bequeath to the said Henry thirteen featherbeds with their bolsters marked with H and W, one counterpoint, colours red, green and purple satin, 2 pair of fustians and seven pillows, 4 pair of blankets and eight coverlets marked with H and W, five carpets of carpet-work whereof one of them a long carpet with crosses of red and white, another of them with square knots, the third with acorns, the fourth for a window, the fifth a long carpet of verdour lined with lockram, 2 twilts [=quilts] of green sarsenet, nine square cushions, three of them with wings and four of verdours and one of carpet-work, 2 old long cushions of cloth of gold;

Item, I give and bequeath to the said Henry 2 garnish and a half of pewter, one garnish unmarked and thother marked with M and W and the half garnish marked with my husband's stamp, and 2 chargers belonging to the same marked with M and W as is aforesaid, one dozen of trenchers of pewter unmarked and five trenchers of pewter marked with my husband's stamp and one plate of pewter, fourteen candlesticks of pewter of three sundry sorts and nine candlesticks of latten, 12 pewter pots, great and small, marked with H and W in the bottom, ten round porringers of pewter, and one little porringer marked with T and G, 2 basins with ewers of pewter, and one washing-basin of pewter;

Item, I give and bequeath to the said Henry one pair of regals and one pair of virginals and one pair of tables of ivory, 4 testers for beds, one of purple damask with flowers of gold and one other of black velvet and cloth of bawdekin and one other of green velvet and cloth of bawdekin and the forth of green sarsenet and orange tawny, and five rugs(?) for beds, also one pair of coal-irons and one pair of racks of iron, 8 spits of iron, also one great brass cauldron, ten brass pots, great and small, 6 posnets and skillets of brass, 11 brass pans, great and small, 2 chafers of brass, two copper(?) kettles, 2 chafing-dishes, one of them with a foot of latten, three little trivets;

Item, I give and bequeath unto my said son, Henry Wingfield, four pieces of hangings making mention of hunters hanging in the parlour, and the stained hangings in the wardrobe, two coffers bound with iron whereof one is standing in my chamber where I use to lay my hoods, thother that Mrs Wulv{er}ston did keep withal such things as I shall leave in the said 2 coffers at the time of my death;

Also I give unto the said Henry my coffer wherein I use to lay my linen and napery, with all my said linen & [-and] napery which I shall leave in the same coffer at the time of my death;

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Elizabeth Naunton, one goblet of silver parcel gilt, one pair of chalice of silver parcel gilt, three featherbeds marked with C and N;

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Margaret Wingfield, 2 featherbeds with their bolsters, one coverlet marked with M and W, one tester of white damask with flowers of green silk and gold;

Item, I give unto Margaret Wulverston one featherbed marked with M W;

Item, I give and bequeath to John Audley, my servant, one featherbed marked with I and A;

Item, I will that my executors shall pay to every one of my servants, as well women-servants as menservants, their whole half year's wages that shall be due to them and every of them at the half year of their term following after my decease whether it be at the end of the whole year or half year;

Item, I give and bequeath unto my said son, Henry Wingfield, over and besides those legacies and bequests to him before given and bequeathed, the residue of all my stuff of household not before given, assigned nor bequeathed;

The residue of all my goods and chattels not given, assigned nor bequeathed I remit and leave them into th' hands of my executors to pay my debts and to perform and fulfil this my said testament and last will, and I ordain and make the aforesaid Richard Wingfield and Henry Wingfield, my sons, my executors to execute this my present testament and last will;

In witness that this is my present testament and last will, I, the said Elizabeth Wingfield, have set my hand and seal to the same in the presence of John Smythe alias Dyer, John Holland th' elder, John Audley, Robert Holland, and other. By me, John Dyer. By me, John Holland. By me, John Audley. By me, Robert Holland.

Probatum fuit suprascriptum testamentum coram custode Curie prerogatiue cantuariensis Terciodecimo die mensis Nouembris Anno d{omi}ni Mill{es}imo quingentesimo quinquagesimo nono Iurament{is} Rich{ard}i Wyngfelde et Henrici Wyngfelde executoru{m} in h{uius}mo{d}i testamento no{m}i{n}ator{um} Ac approbatum et insinuat{m} Com{m}issaq{ue} fuit administratio om{n}i{um} et sing{u}lor{um} bonor{um} Iuriu{m} &c pefat{is} executor{ibus} de bene &c Ac de pleno et fideli Inventario Necnon de vero et plano compot{o} reddend{o} &c Iurat{is}

[=The above-written testament was proved before the Keeper of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury on the thirteenth day of the month of November in the year of the Lord the thousand five hundred fifty-ninth by the oaths of Richard Wingfield and Henry Wingfield, executors named in the same testament, and probated and entered, and administration was granted of all and singular the goods, rights etc. to the forenamed executors, sworn to well etc., and to render a full and faithful inventory and a true and plain account etc.]