

SUMMARY: The document below is the Prerogative Court of Canterbury copy of the last will and testament, dated 1 August 1576 and proved 16 July 1579 of Joan Collett, whose daughter, Mercy Collett (d. 13 April 1597), son, John Collett, and grandson, Sir John Bodley of Streatham, were involved in the early history of the Globe theatre.

The testatrix married Humphrey Collett of the parish of St Saviour in Southwark. See his will, TNA PROB 11/42A/115, and the History of Parliament entry at:

<http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1509-1558/member/colet-humphrey-1517-58>.

According to the History of Parliament entry for her husband, the testatrix was the daughter of Thomas Hunt of Wallington.

The testatrix' daughter, Mercy, married firstly Francis Bodley (d.1566), by whom she had two sons, Sir John Bodley of Streatham, and William Bodley. For the will of Mercy's first husband, Francis Bodley, see TNA PROB 11/48/415.

After the death of Francis Bodley, Mercy married Thomas Brend (for whose will see TNA PROB 11/93/316), and became the stepmother of Nicholas Brend (d. 12 October 1601), who leased the ground on which the Globe was built by lease dated 21 February 1599 to Richard Burbage (1568-1619), Cuthbert Burbage (1564/5-1636), William Kempe, Augustine Phillips (d.1605), Thomas Pope (d.1603) John Heminges (1566-1630) and William Shakespeare (1564-1616) of Stratford upon Avon (see TNA REQ 4/1/2):

for the said gardens and grounds whereupon the said playhouse & galleries were afterwards builded were demised & letten by the said Nicholas Brend by his indenture of lease tripartite bearing date in or about the 21st day of February in the 41st year of the reign of the late Queen Elizabeth [=21 February 1599] unto Cuthbert Burbage, Richard Burbage, William Shakespeare, the said Augustine Phillips, Thomas Pope, the said John Heminges, one of the said defendants, and William Kempe, to have and to hold the one moiety of the said garden plots and ground to the said Cuthbert Burbage and Richard Burbage, their executors, administrators & assigns, from the feast of the birth of Our Lord God last past before the date of the said indenture [=25 December 1598] unto the end & term of 31 years from thence next ensuing [=24 December 1629] for the yearly rent of seven pounds & five shillings, and to have & to hold the other moiety of the said garden plots & grounds unto the said William Shakespeare, Augustine Phillips, Thomas Pope, the said John Heminges, one of the said defendants, & William Kempe, their executors, administrators & assigns, from the said feast of the birth of Our Lord God then last past before the date of the said indenture unto the said full end & term of 31 years from thence next ensuing for the like yearly rent of seven pounds & five shillings.

For the financial transactions entered into in connection with the Globe playhouse by the testatrix' son, the London Merchant Taylor John Collett, and the testator's grandson, Sir

John Bodley of Streatham, see TNA C 54/1682, mm. 10-11 and the other documents listed there.

In the will below the testatrix names five sons (Nicholas, Robert, John, Stephen and Peter), and four married daughters ('my daughter Pigion', 'my daughter Slywright', 'my daughter Brend' and 'my daughter Curtys').

For the will of the testatrix' son, Humphrey Collett (d.1567), see TNA PROB 11/49/25.

For the will of the testatrix' son, William Collett, dated 7 March 1574 and proved 25 January 1576, see TNA PROB 11/57/647.

For the will of the testatrix' son-in-law, William Slywright, husband of the testatrix' daughter, Joan Collett, see TNA PROB 11/60/518.

LM: T{estamentum} Joanne Collett

In the name of God, Amen. The first day of August Anno Domini 1576 and in the 18th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Elizabeth etc., I, Joan Collett of the parish of the Holy Trinity in Trinity Lane in London, late the wife of Humphrey Collett, late citizen of [sic] bowyer of London, deceased, being at this present whole of mind and memory and also in good health of body, God be thanked therefore, do declare, ordain and make this my present testament containing therein my only last will in manner and form following, that is to say:

First I bequeath, will and commend my soul to Almighty God the Father, my Creator, to his son, Jesus Christ, my only Saviour and Redeemer, and to the Holy Ghost, three persons and one eternal God, trusting and steadfastly believing to be saved and to have full pardon of all my sins by the only merits of my Saviour Christ;

My body to the earth from whence it came, to be buried where it shall please God to call me to his mercy at the discretion of mine executor under-named, to whom I refer the charges of my burial; notwithstanding I will he shall bestow thereon ten pounds or thereabouts;

And I give to some godly learned preacher for a sermon to be made at my burial six shillings eight pence;

Also I give to the livery of the said Company of Bowyers in London for a recreation or repast among them to be had twenty shillings, so that they accompany my corpse to the church;

Item, I will that all my debts shall be truly paid by my said executor;

Also I give and bequeath unto my son, Nicholas Collett, if he be living at the time of my decease, twenty pounds in money;

Also I give and bequeath unto my son, Robert Collett, one of my small silver pots parcel gilt;

Also I give and bequeath unto my son, John Collett, a dozen of silver spoons with apostles' heads, and to his wife my stone pot covered and footed with silver and gilt;

Also I give and bequeath to my daughter Pigion my nut set with silver and gilt and the cover thereunto belonging;

Item, I give and bequeath to my son, Stephen Collett, the featherbed, bedstead, coverlet and the rest of the furniture thereto belonging in the chamber over the kitchen of my now dwelling-house wherein he now lieth;

Also I give to my daughter Slywright my plain hoop ring of gold which I am accustomed to wear;

And to my daughter Brend my other hoop ring of gold graven with chequerwork;

Also I give to my daughter Curtys if she shall be living at the time of my decease 20s in money;

Also I give and bequeath unto Thomas Peacock, Joan Peacock and Helen Peacock, children unto Agnes Wood, now wife of John Wood and daughter of my brother, Christopher Hunt, deceased, seven pounds in money, that is forty-six shillings eight pence apiece in lieu and recompense of so much money which they claim of my gift heretofore;

And I give to my son Robert Collett his wife ten shilling[s] to buy her a ring for a remembrance of me;

The rest of all my goods and chattels whatsoever not before given or bequeathed, after my debts paid and my funerals discharged, I do fully give and bequeath unto Peter Collett, my son, which Peter my son I make and constitute my full and sole executor of this my last will and testament;

And overseers of the same I make and appoint my said sons, Robert Collett and John Collett;

And as touching the order and disposition of all and singular my messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments with their appurtenances in the parish of St Saviour in Southwark in the county of Surrey and within the city of London, I make and declare my last will and testament thereof in manner and form following, that is to say:

First I give, will and devise unto my said son, Steven Collett, his heirs and assigns forevermore all those my two messuages or tenements with their appurtenances within the said parish of St Saviour, thone whereof is called and known by the name of the sign of the Maidenhead; the other adjoineth over the south side thereof;

Also I give and devise unto the said Peter Collett, my son, his heirs and assigns forevermore all that messuage or tenement with th' appurtenances wherein I now dwell in Trinity lane aforesaid;

In witness whereof to this my present testament and last will I, the said Joan Collett, have put my hand and seal given the day and years first above-written.

Memorandum: That this last will and testament was read, sealed and subscribed the sixth day of August Anno 1576 in the presence and hearing of us, Thomas Wood, pewterer, Robert Preston, scrivener. By me, Thomas Wood. Et mei Thome Lucas servien{te}(?) dicti Scrivenor.
