

PRO WARD 8/13 Part 17 of 78 English

Colne, late priory, with the manor of Barwick Hall with other parcels of lands aforesaid in the foresaid county.

Account of Robert, Lord Dudley, keeper or farmer of the foresaid lands for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: The same accountant is charged with £9 10s of arrearages of the last account of the next preceding year, as appears there in the foot. Total: £9 10s.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid late priory of Colne with the manors of Barwick Hall [+&] Inglesthorpe, [+&] one mill called Colneford mill, and of the rectories of Belchamp, Bentley, & Messing and a certain pension & portion of tithes to the same priory lately appertaining, and also of one mill called Chalkney mill to the same late priory similarly appertaining with its appurtenances in the foresaid county of Essex, of the yearly value by the foresaid inquisition, together with the late house or nunnery of Hedingham with the demesne lands to the same late priory lately appertaining & belonging, and together with the rectory of Wickham and the manor of Hinxton in the county of Cambridge, and together with three tenements with one garden in the city of London, parcel of the late possessions of the foresaid priory of Colne and here after below particularly specified, [+of] £130 10s 4-3/4d, held together with the foresaid premises of the Lady Queen in chief by knight service, viz., by service of (blank) part of one knight's fee, of which certain priory, manors, lands, tenements, and the rest of the premises with all & singular their appurtenances the foresaid John, late Earl of Oxenford, before his death was seised in his demesne as of fee-tail, viz., to himself & the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten, and which certain priory, manors, lands, tenements, & hereditaments, mills, rectories, pensions, & the rest of the premises all & singular abovesaid with their appurtenances the foresaid John de Vere, a little while ago Earl of Oxenford, father of the foresaid late Earl, had to himself & his heirs males of his body lawfully begotten of the gift of the most noble Henry VIII, late King of England, the reversion thereof for lack of such issue belonging to the same late King, his heirs & successors.

And the foresaid late Earl of the foresaid priory, manors, lands, tenements, & the rest of the premises in the form aforesaid seised of such estate died thereof seised, & the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 6th day of May in the 4th & 5th years [=6 May 1558] of the late King & Queen Philip & Mary demised & granted to John Booth & Thomas Coe all that messuage called Colne Priory or Colne House with all gardens, orchards, ponds, fisheries, houses, [+&] buildings together with all meadows, lands, pastures, grazing lands, moors, marshes, woods, [+&] underwoods to the same house belonging or appertaining, to have & to hold to the same John Booth & Thomas Coe & their assigns from the feast of Saint

Michael the Archangel next after the date of the foresaid deed until the end & term of 21 years next following & completely to be fulfilled, paying yearly to the said Earl & his assigns £13 6s 8d of lawful money of England at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the said yearly rent, as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears, which certain estate, term, & interest aforesaid of John Booth & Thomas Coe of & in the foresaid message & the rest of the premises is granted to the Lady Margery, now Countess of Oxenford.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain deed of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand bearing date the first day of July in the 37th year [=1 July 1545] of the reign of the late King Henry VIII for & in consideration of good, true, & faithful service to himself by Bartholomew Church previously done & thereafter to be done gave & granted to the same Bartholomew the office of bailiff or bailiwick of the manor of Colne Priory and also the office of tenant of the wood called Chalkney wood. to have, exercise, & enjoy the foresaid offices to the forenamed Bartholomew Church & his assigns during the natural life of himself, Bartholomew, and the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed for the foresaid consideration granted to the same Bartholomew for the exercise & occupation of the foresaid offices, viz., for the exercise & occupation of the office of bailiff or bailiwick of the foresaid manor of Colne Priory a certain fee of £4 by year of good & lawful money of England, and for the exercise & occupation of tenant of the foresaid wood a certain fee of 20s of lawful money of England, to have & hold the foresaid fees to the forenamed Bartholomew Church & his assigns during the natural life of himself, Bartholomew, to be paid yearly, and further the foresaid late Earl by his foresaid deed granted for non-payment of the foresaid fees that it would be well allowed to the forenamed Bartholomew & his assigns to distraint in the foresaid manor of Colne Priory, as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully is clear & appears.

And they remain in the hands of the Lady Queen as above in the account of the castle, honour, & manor of Hedingham more fully is clear and appears, and in the whole as above are valued by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account. Nothing here in charge because it has been received thereof to the said Lady Queen after in the account of Lord Robert Dudley, farmer of the manor of East Bergholt in the county of Suffolk, parcel of the foresaid inheritance, in the section "Farm by indenture" within the total of £803 9s 8-1/2d, as in the same more fully will be able to appear. Total: none

Increase of rents by the survey of the feodary

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the increase of rents of the foresaid lands at 9s 9-1/2d per year thus assessed by the survey thereof made by John Glascock, feodary, surveyor, & receiver of all the lands of the wards of the Lady Queen in the county of Essex, & remaining of record in the Court of Wards & Liveries of the same Lady Queen, more than by the foresaid inquisition is found, to be paid at the foresaid feasts equally, viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account. Nothing here in charge for the reason specified above in the section “Issues of the lands by the inquisition”. Total: none.

Perquisites of the courts

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the fees & perquisites of the courts held there within the foresaid late priory of Colne. Nothing here in charge for the reason alleged above in the section “Issues of the lands by the inquisition”. Total: none.

Total of the foresaid arrearages: £9 10s.

Of which

There is respited

To him £6 13s 4d as of all moneys resulting or arising from the issues of the whole mansion-house called Colne Priory or Colne House with the appurtenances valued above at £6 13s 4d by year thus in the tenure of the Lady Margery, Countess of Oxenford, by the indenture of the foresaid late Earl made to a certain John Booth & Thomas Coe dated as above in the section “Issues of the lands by the inquisition” more fully appears; here however it is placed in respite, namely for the moiety of the year [+ended] at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen, because it has been certified by Thomas Wiseman, particular auditor of the foresaid late Earl, that the foresaid farm has remained in the hands of the said late Earl & of his executors for the whole foresaid time; thereupon it is placed in respite until it be determined by the Master & Council of the Court of Wards & Liveries what [+is to be done] on that account £6 13s 4d. Total: £6 13s 4d.

And there remains beyond: 56s 8d.

Total

Above

Robert Cannock, farmer of the rectory of Messing valued above at 113s 8d by year, of moneys in his hands remaining unpaid of the issues of his foresaid farm, namely for the moiety of the year ended at the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 4th year [=29 September 1562] of the Lady Elizabeth now Queen, still in arrears unpaid: 56s 8d.

Himself, the accountant, of his own arrearages unpaid: nothing.
