
PRO WARD 8/13 Part 31 of 78 EnglishCity of London

Mansion-house of the Earl of Oxenford at London Stone with the appurtenances, parcel of the foresaid lands.

Account of Thomas Warren, bailiff there for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: None, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of three tenements with one garden in the city of London with the appurtenances, parcel of the possessions of the late priory of Colne in the county of Essex of the yearly value by the inquisition, nothing, since they are valued before in the account of Colne priory in the county of Essex within the total of £130 10s 4-3/4d, held together with the foresaid late priory & others of the now Lady Queen in chief by knight-service, viz., by service of (blank) part of one knight's fee, of which certain tenements with the garden & the rest of the premises with their appurtenances the foresaid John, late Earl of Oxenford, a long time before his death was seised in his demesne as of fee-tail, as before in the account of Colne priory aforesaid more fully appears.

And the foresaid late Earl by his deed sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 27th day of October in the 38th year [=27 October 1546] of the reign of Henry VIII for circumspection & faithful service done to him by Thomas Warren, gave to the same Thomas the office of keeper of his house & garden lying & being within the city of London with all profits, advantages, & emoluments to his garden in his absence appertaining and then being in his hands, and also by the foresaid deed the foresaid late Earl gave to the same Thomas the house in which the said Thomas at the time of the making of the said deed was dwelling, viz., three chambers, one kitchen, one shop, one cellar underneath the house & the foresaid chambers adjacent of the inner gate of his house, and also by the foresaid deed the foresaid late Earl gave to the same Thomas Warren the office of bailiff or collector of rents of all & singular his tenements within the city of London, to have & exercise the foresaid office and all & singular the premises with their appurtenances to the forenamed Thomas Warren & his assigns by himself or by his sufficient deputy during the natural life of the same Thomas Warren, perceiving yearly during his life for the exercise of the foresaid office 40s sterling at two terms of the year, viz., to be paid yearly at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel by equal portions, with a clause of distraint for non-payment of the foresaid 40s, as by the foresaid deed specified in the foresaid inquisition more fully appears.

And they remain in the hands of the Lady Queen as before in the account of the honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham more fully appears, and in the whole as above are valued by year by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Birth of the Lord, the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, viz., for 4 such feasts falling within the time of this account, because it has been received thereof below in the section “Issues of the lands by the survey of the feodary” in the foresaid city of London, as there more fully appears. Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the survey of the feodary

But received of £12 10s 2d resulting or arising from the issues of the farm of three tenements there now in the tenure of Thomas Smith (40s), William Gall (30s), & Oliver Catham (6s 10d) of the yearly value of 76s 10d, of a certain rent yearly issuing to the forenamed late Earl & his heirs of the yearly value of 40s, & of the farm of one le storehouse with a cellar there now in the tenure of Mark Dingley & Christopher Edwards of the yearly value of £6 13s 4d, in the whole at £12 10s 2d by year are valued by a certain survey thereof made by William Gerrard, feodary & receiver of all the lands of the wards of the Lady Queen in the county of Middlesex & the city of London, & remaining of record in the Court of Wards & Liveries of the Lady Queen, to be paid at the foresaid feasts equally, viz., for 4 such feasts falling within the time of this account. And there remains: Total: £12 10s 2d.

Total of the whole receipt: £12 10s 2d.

Of which there is allowed to him 40s for his fee of himself, the accountant, so of collector of the rents aforesaid as of keeper of the mansion-house aforesaid, at 40s by the annuity thus to himself granted by letters patent of the foresaid late Earl of Oxenford as in the same specified above in the section “Issues of the lands by the inquisition” more fully appears, viz., in such allowance, namely for the time of this account by virtue of the foresaid letters patent.

And to the same, 36s of moneys by the said accountant paid, so to the rectory of the church of Saint Swithin at London Stone aforesaid at 22s by year as to the clerk of the same church at 10s by year & to le scavenger of the churchyard at 4s by year, in the whole at 36s by year, viz., in such allowance, namely for the time of this account according as it has been allowed in the life of the foresaid Earl.

And to the same, 2s for payment of the auditor’s clerk for the engrossment of this account this year on parchment, as in such case it has been allowed in preceding years.

And in moneys delivered to William Gerrard, feodary & receiver of all the lands of the wards of the Lady Queen in the county of Middlesex & the city of London, out of his acknowledgement on this account: £6 7s 1d.

And there is owing: £6 12s 2d. [sic]

Which is charged in the account of the same feodary of this year as of all moneys resulting or arising from the remainder of the issues of the foresaid lands, namely for the time of this account still in the hands of the foresaid accountant remaining unpaid, as in the same more fully will be able to appear.
