Manor of Blacon with the appurtenances in the foresaid county, parcel of the foresaid lands and now in the jointure of the Lady Countess of Oxenford.

Account of the tenants & occupants of the foresaid manor for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: None, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manor of Blacon with the appurtenances of the yearly value of £15 10s, held together with the manor of Warmingham with others in the foresaid county specified below but of whom (s. & pl.) is entirely unknown, because after the making of the foresaid Act of Parliament the foresaid late Earl, being seised in his demesne as of fee of & in the manors of Warmingham, North Rode, Blacon, Ashton, Worleston, and of the messuage & eastern gate called in English the Gate of Westchester within the foresaid county, by the indenture specified before in the account of the manor of Tilbury in the county of Essex, parcel of the foresaid inheritance, further among other things fully granted, agreed, & promised to & with the foresaid Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding & their heirs that he, the late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the said indenture would stand & be seised of & in the foresaid manors and of all other lands, tenements, rents, revenues, & hereditaments in the foresaid county of Chester to the use of himself, the late Earl, for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease to the use of the said Lady Margery for term of her life, and after her decease to the use of the right heirs of himself, the late Earl, forever, by virtue of which the same late Earl was seised of the same manors & the rest of the premises in his demesne as of free tenement for term of his life, remainder thereof to the forenamed Lady Margery for term of her life, remainder thereof further in the form aforesaid, and thus thereof being seised, he died thereof seised.

And it remains in the hands of the Lady Queen as above in the foresaid account of the honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham in the foresaid county of Essex is specified, and in the whole as above is valued by year by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally.

Which certain Lady Margery, Countess of Oxenford, still survives & is in full life. Total: none.

Total of the whole receipt: none.
