
PRO WARD 8/13 Part 62 of 78 EnglishCounty of Essex

Manor of Gutteridge with the appurtenances in the foresaid county, parcel of the foresaid lands, and now assigned to Geoffrey de Vere.

Account of Geoffrey de Vere, esquire, occupant of the foresaid manor for the foresaid time.

Arrearages: None, as appears in the foot of the account of the next preceding year.
Total: none.

Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manor of Gutteridge with the appurtenances in the foresaid county of the yearly value of £11, held together with the manor of Countesmead in Bumpstead with the members and with others in the foresaid county but of whom (s. & pl.) & by which services is unknown, because as to the foresaid manor, together with the manor of Copping Hall here specified below, by a certain article in the foresaid Act of Parliament of repeal by authority of the foresaid Parliament it is enacted & established that Geoffrey de Vere, one of the brothers of the said late Earl, from the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel next before the making of that Act will have & hold for term of his life the same manors, lands, & tenements without impeachment of any waste, remainder thereof to his lawful wife, himself Geoffrey surviving, for term of the life of the same wife if the same Geoffrey by his deed sealed by his seal & subscribed by his own hand will thus limit & appoint, remainder thereof to the said late Earl for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, remainder[s] thereof further as they would have remained if the foresaid article of the said Act had never been made & enacted.

And the foresaid late Earl by the foresaid indenture specified above in the account of the foresaid manor of Tilbury in the foresaid county of Essex, parcel of the foresaid inheritance, for himself & his heirs fully & plainly agreed & promised to & with the forenamed Duke of Norfolk, Robert, Lord Dudley, & Thomas Golding & their heirs that he, the late Earl, his heirs & assigns, from the time of the making of the said indenture would stand and be seised of & in the reversion after the death of the said Geoffrey de Vere of the foresaid manors of Crepping Hall & Gutteridge and of & in the reversion of all other his messuages, lands, tenements, rents, reversions, services, possessions, & hereditaments whatsoever situate, lying, & being in Wakes Colne, Pontisbright, Fordham, & Gutteridge in the foresaid county of Essex after the death of the said Geoffrey de Vere & his wife & the survivor of them to the use of the same late Earl for term of his life without impeachment of any waste, and after his decease to the use of Edward, now Earl of Oxenford, and of the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten, and for lack of such issue to the use of the heirs males of the body of the said late Earl lawfully begotten, and for lack of such issue to the use of Aubrey de Vere for term of his life, and after his decease then to the uses as in the foresaid indenture more fully & largely is declared, and the same late Earl of the same reversion thus in the foresaid form being seised, died seised thereof of such estate.

And it remains in the hands of the Lady Queen as above in the account of the foresaid honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham in the foresaid county of Essex, parcel of the foresaid inheritance, more fully appears, and which certain manor is valued as above by year by the foresaid inquisition, to be paid at the feasts of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin & Saint Michael the Archangel equally, viz., for two such feasts falling within the time of this account.

Which certain Geoffrey de Vere still survives & is in full life. Total: none.

Total of the whole receipt: none.
