Issues of the lands by the inquisition

Not yet received of any profit resulting or arising from the issues of the foresaid manor of Colne Wake with the appurtenances in the foresaid county of the yearly value of £30 15s 4-1/2d, held together with the manor of Lamarsh above specified of the Lady Queen in chief by knight-service, viz., by the service of the 20th part of one knight's fee, because together with the foresaid manors of Wivenhoe, Newers, & Battleswick above specified and with other manors, lands, & tenements here after below specified, the foresaid manor with the appurtenances is assigned towards the performance of the last will of the foresaid late Earl, so by the last will of the foresaid late Earl as by the foresaid Act of Parliament before specified at large in the account of the honour, castle, & manor of Hedingham in the foresaid county of Essex as by the foresaid indenture above similarly specified in the account of the foresaid manors of Wivenhoe, Newers, & Battleswick in the foresaid county, for the term of 20 years next following after the death of the foresaid late Earl.

And the foresaid late Earl by a certain writing of his sealed by his seal at arms & subscribed by his own hand dated the 26th day of December in the second year [=26 December 1559] of the reign of the now Lady Queen granted to Richard Bull, viz., the keeping of all his armour & artillery being or remaining as well at or within his house[s] of Hedingham & Colne as elsewhere within the realm of England, to hold & enjoy the keeping of the said armour & artillery with all profits, commodities, & advantages thereto belonging to the said Richard Bull by him or his sufficient deputy or deputies for and during the term of his natural life, and further the said Earl for the keeping of the said armour hath granted by his writing aforesaid unto the said Richard Bull for term of his life one annual fee or annuity of 60s by year to be yearly going out of the manor of Colne Wake within the county of Essex to be paid to the said Richard Bull or his assigns at the feasts of th' Annunciation of Our Lady & St. Michael th' Archangel by even portions with [+a] clause of distress for non-payment of the said rent, as by the foresaid deed in the foresaid inquisition in these English words more fully is specified.

And which certain last will of the foresaid late Earl is still not fulfilled. Total: none.

Total of the whole receipt: none.
